

1. Company overview

This section of the annual company report covers company overview.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

The company was founded in 2014 and has 212 employees.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

2. Offices

This section of the annual company report covers offices.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

The Denver office lease ends on June 30, 2028.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

3. Customers

This section of the annual company report covers customers.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

The largest customer segment is logistics, at 38 percent of revenue.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

4. Products

This section of the annual company report covers products.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

The Starter plan costs 400 dollars a month.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

5. Hiring

This section of the annual company report covers hiring.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

Eleven engineering roles are open this quarter.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

6. Security

This section of the annual company report covers security.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

The last outside security audit was completed on March 9, 2026.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

7. Benefits

This section of the annual company report covers benefits.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

New hires receive 18 days of paid time off in their first year.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

8. Travel

This section of the annual company report covers travel.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

Flights over four hours may be booked in premium economy.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

9. Equipment

This section of the annual company report covers equipment.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

Laptops are replaced every three years.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.

10. Contacts

This section of the annual company report covers contacts.
It is reviewed every year by the leadership team.

Payroll questions go to the people team, not finance.

Questions about this section go to the owner listed in the appendix.